Ms. Motley,

Please find attached a Stipulation and Order (and Exhibit A which lists the citation number and your defendant-clients) which amends the pending Proclamation of Emergency curfew restriction citations so as to specify a Deposit amount of $313.00 for all 40 of the defendants you are representing.

Given my past explicit assurances expressed to you in person, I did not think this document was necessary.

You will recall months ago you were informed that these curfew violations would be prosecuted at the $313 amount, as opposed to the $1321 amount originally stated.

You will further recall at that first pretrial with me you were given a photocopy of the current Deposit Schedule which explains and specifies the costs, assessments and surcharges to be imposed under state law and added to the $200 forfeiture. You were given every assurance from me that these pending cases would be pursued and prosecuted with a $313 fine and I offered then to so stipulate in writing if you felt that was necessary. With most other defense counsel I encounter, such a document would not be necessary.

I now forward this stipulation to you as I have become aware of your continuing misrepresentation that I am prosecuting these particular matters at the $1321 amount. We both know that is false and I request you cease asserting it.

Please sign the attached document and forward it to the court clerk. If you refuse to sign this stipulation, Be advised of my further intention (again, as I have previously advised you months ago) to amend these citations at trial to conform to the evidence.

Thank you.
